

Services for skilled foreign workers

We provide free advice and assistance during the integration process in our region. In addition, you benefit from our networks.

What can you expect from us?

- We analyse your situation with you and develop individually tailored solutions.
- We define your advice requirements with you.
- We recommend what steps you should take next and which advice centres you should contact.

The team at the region's Welcome Center will advise you on the following issues

- Job searching and apply for jobs
- Recognition of foreign academic and professional qualifications
- Training and studying in Germany
- Rights of entry and residence
- Learning German or improving your current language skills
- How the German health system works
- Childcare and schools in the region
- Public transport in the region
- Religious communities
- Housing and leisure facilities

We find out which authorities and advice centres can assist you further and we help you prepare for your appointments.

Advice for skilled foreign workers and students

Welcome Center

Herzlich Willkommen!

Welcome to the region

Are you new to the region? Are you preparing for life in Germany?

Welcome to the region, which includes the cities of Braunschweig, Salzgitter, Wolfsburg and the districts of Gifhorn, Goslar, Helmstedt, Peine and Wolfenbüttel! The region's Welcome Center supports skilled foreign workers, helping them quickly find their way in their new home and workplace and providing useful contact details for specialist advice centres.

The region's Welcome Center is the first port of call for skilled foreign workers or students and their families. We help you integrate into your new home and create new perspectives.

We are happy to help you further if you

- have already completed vocational training or study, with or without professional experience
- are hoping to undertake vocational training or study in your new home
- are interested in staying in Germany for a longer period of time
- need help navigating the employment market

From person to person

Our main goal is to help make your new start in your new home, our region, easier for you. So we feel it is very important to give you personal and individual advice. To make sure we have enough time to do this, we ask that you book an appointment in advance.

Call us on
